

Venue: Ingatestone Hall

A description from the Ingatestone Hall website

Whether you are planning to celebrate your wedding in the company of twenty or two hundred of your friends and family, Ingatestone Hall can provide a most attractive setting for the festivities.

The premises are licensed for live music and for the consumption of alcohol. Ingatestone Hall possesses a Civil Ceremony Licence so it is able to host weddings and civil partnerships.

There are five principal rooms inside the house and four main areas in the gardens and grounds that are available for your use, either Individually or in combination.

Location

The village of Ingatestone lies off the A12 (Exit 28 from the M25) between BRENTWOOD and CHELMSFORD. From the London end of the High Street, take Station Lane. Proceed over the level crossing and continue for ½ mile.

The Hall is 35 miles from Central London
